40 front.

41
42 Nancy Smith made a motion to adopt the Building Use Policy for the Whitaker Museum
43 with the changes noted, including a $100 refundable Security Deposit, and incorporate a fee
44 schedule chart showing as Exhibit A, and request that Lisa Linn Sommer follow up with staff for 45 the protocol on how to handle this as a contract payment for the $15 an hour supervision of the 46 building. Diane Chamberlain seconded the motion, which was passed by unanimous vote (4-0).

BOARD MEMBER ITEMS OF BUSINESS

Bridget Lee reported the article of past years events at the Whitaker Museum was submitted to Jacob Smith for the newsletter. On Tuesday, April 1st, the Whitaker Museum Board will host a dinner/work session for the City Council at the Museum prior to the City Council meeting. Chair Packer and some docents will give a short presentation on the accomplishments at the Museum during the past year.

At 8:10 p.m., Larry Wright, City Council Liaison was excused.

Diane Chamberlain displayed a box of period coins she found in the attic of the Museum. Diane had Rust Coin Collectors in Provo appraise the coins, which are worth $48.00. The Board agreed to keep the coins and come up with an educational display.

Lisa Linn Sommer reported the gardens will start taking reservations on Monday, March 10th. The Story Telling is ready to begin on March 11th, and a poster was displayed listing the storytellers, topics and dates. These posters have been placed at the elementary schools and library in Centerville. The Victorian Tea Party is ready and reservations will begin April 1st and continue through May 1st (firm). The Board is looking for musicians to perform at the Tea Party. Docent spotlights will be on the City website. Lisa asked if docents should wear their costumes for special events, or all the time. The Board agreed pioneer period costumes will be encouraged to be worn all of the time, and they should be worn for special events.

Nancy Smith will check into badges for docents.
