In August of 2023, Jibe Media met with the City Council and led them through an exercise to capture data, thoughts, and feelings on branding for the City. Representatives of Jibe Media in attendance presented initial branding concepts and ideas put together using data gathered from the City Council, board/commission members, staff, and the public.

Councilmembers provided feedback on six mood boards. Councilmember Summerhays suggested depictions of families should include all ages to be representative of Centerville, not just the young. Councilmember Hayman suggested depictions of community members working together should be included.

At 7:11 p.m., Councilmember Hirst moved to adjourn the meeting. The motion passed by unanimous vote (5-0).
